

College of Arts and Sciences—Music Department

Below is the list of etude and technical books that we will be working out of for your first year. If funds are limited, purchase the books with an () first, then you can add the others later. If you still have money after purchasing these books, then I recommend you invest in all items listed to begin your music collection.

The following are recommend sites to purchase the music. If you find it cheaper somewhere else, let me know. To avoid multiple shipping charges, try to order all books from one or two sites.
